Variety Announces New Venue for 'One Night in the Valley'

(Burnaby, BC) – Variety - the Children's Charity is thrilled to announce that this year's One Night in the Valley fundraising Gala will be held at Glass House Estate Winery in South Langley on Saturday, April 4 with the Joseph Richard Group returning as the presenting sponsor and Preston Chevrolet Buick GMC Cadillac Ltd. signing on once again as the title sponsor.

"We along with the Joseph Richard Group and Preston GM are so excited to be bringing One Night in the Valley back for its second year," said Cally Wesson, CEO, Variety BC. "Last year's event was an amazing night where the incredibly supportive people of the Fraser Valley got together to enjoy some phenomenal country entertainment while fundraising for kids with special needs in their very own communities. We cannot wait to do it again this year and help even more Fraser Valley families."

"We are humbled to continue working in partnership with Variety - the Children's Charity," said Ryan Moreno, Co-Founder & CEO, Joseph Richard Group. "And we are honoured to bring this year's Gala to our very own Glass House Estate Winery along the Campbell Valley Wine Route in South Langley."

"It is a tremendous honour to continue our support of Variety BC's efforts to raise awareness and funds for kids with special needs in the Fraser Valley," said Peter Heppner, President, Preston Chevrolet Buick GMC Cadillac Ltd. "This year's country night gala will once again showcase an Award-winning lineup of new Chevrolet and GMC trucks at an outstanding venue. Somehow country music and pickup trucks just seems the perfect fit."

The evening's festivities will begin at 5:30 pm with Preston GM's Red Carpet Tailgate before the party moves inside to the Conservatory for the Quiring Trucking Reception followed by a Country Barbeque Feast catered by Blank Canvas Catering, a division of the Joseph Richard Group. As well, there will be both a live and a silent auction along with a whisky tasting lounge plus musical guest, local country artist Dave Hartney and a DJ dance party.
